

Nathalie Piton

Member of the IHI JU Science and Innovation Panel

Head of Public Private Partnerships – Alliance Management

Sanofi

Senior pharmaceutical executive with more than 20 years of experience spanning clinical research, alliance management and public-private partnerships. Recognized leader in building and governing multi-stakeholder collaborations involving pharmaceutical companies, academia, SMEs, patient organizations, healthcare stakeholders and public institutions. Extensive experience in shaping and implementing collaborative research and innovation initiatives within the European health ecosystem through EFPIA, IMI and IHI-related activities.

Areas of Expertise

• Public-Private Partnerships • Collaborative Research • Science & Innovation Strategy • Alliance Management • Consortium Governance • Multi-Stakeholder Collaboration • European Research Ecosystems • Translational Research • Strategic Partnerships • Health Innovation • Stakeholder Engagement • Clinical Development

Leadership in European Health Innovation

EFPIA Research & Innovation Strategies Working group (RIS)

- Sanofi Representative within EFPIA RIS
- Member of the EFPIA RIS Core Group
- Contributed to strategic discussions shaping industry perspectives on collaborative health research and innovation

Strategic Governance Leadership

- Initiated and established the Translational Safety Strategic Governing Group
- Facilitated alignment across industry experts and stakeholders to address scientific and innovation priorities

IMI / IHI Ecosystem

- Active contributor to public-private partnership initiatives supporting collaborative research and innovation
- Long-standing engagement with European partnership models bringing together industry, academia, SMEs and public funders