

Maia Rukhadze

Member of the IHI JU States Representatives Group

Maia Rukhadze represents Georgia in the IHI States Representatives Group.

Maia Rukhadze Professor MD PhD is representing European Academy of Allergy and Clinical Immunology (EAACI), Chair of Working Group of Asthma, Allergy & Sports, Board Member of Asthma Section (EAACI), Advisor Board Member of Georgian Association of Allergology and Clinical Immunology (GAACI), experienced in clinical research, health care economics and clinical medicine, leading the department of International Programs at the Centre of Allergy and Immunology, Tbilisi, Georgia. Professor of the Faculty of Medicine, Teaching University Geomedi, Tbilisi, Georgia

Previous positions

- IMI 2 States Representatives Group member, representative of Georgia (2016-2021)
- EAACI Asthma, Allergy and Sport Working Group Chair (2019-2022)
- EAACI Asthma, Allergy and Sport Interest Group Secretary (2017-2019)
- EAACI Asthma, Allergy and Sport Interest Group Board Member (2015-2017)
- EAACI Immunotherapy Interest Group Board Member (2012-2010)
- Head of Specific diagnostics, Centre of Allergy & Immunology, Tbilisi, Georgia
- Investigator – Epidemiological studies, clinical research

Fields of expertise

- PhD degree in field of Allergy&Immunology and Health Economics.
- Qualification at the Department of Health and Environment. Division of Paediatrics, Faculty of Health Sciences. Linköping Medical University, Sweden.
- Conducting and managing Clinical Research
- National Coordinator of multicentre International Research in Specific ImmunoTherapy European Survey (PASTE)